

SLAYER.

Execution of Charles Salgard, the Noted Harrisburg Thief.

THE CRIME FOR WHICH HE DIED COM- MITTED APRIL 8, 1892.

Policeman George B. Martin was shot to death in a dark lane—From a Description Given Subsequent Fastened Upon Salgard—Subsequent Trial and Conviction—Parole Denied.

CHARLESTON, Pa., March 1.—Charles Salgard, who murdered Policeman G. B. Martin, was hanged this morning. The drop fell at 10:30. The crime was committed on Saturday night, April 8, 1892. Policeman Martin started out upon his beat early in the evening and shortly afterwards he was seen to follow a man into a dark lane. There was a shot, a man ran away and Martin was picked up dead.

From a description given by persons who witnessed the murder, suspicion at once fastened upon Salgard, a noted Harrisburg thief, who had been seen in Carlisle that day. A reward of $1,000 was offered for the capture of the murderer. Salgard was traced to Hagerstown, where on the following Monday morning he sought to conceal his identity by having his beard cut off. From Hagerstown he was traced to Winchester, Va., and there arrested.

His trial was begun before Judge Sadler May 18, and lasted eight days. He was ably defended by W. J. Shearer and N. Stuart. District Attorney Harris and ex-Judge Harris presented a complete chain of circumstantial evidence, and the jury reached a verdict of "murder in the first degree" in three hours.

A motion for a new trial was overruled and sustained by the Supreme Court and the Pardon Board later refused to commute the sentence. He was sentenced to be hanged on Jan. 22, but Gov. Pattison granted a reprieve until March 1, to give an opportunity for a rehearing. The case was again heard, but the Pardon Board a second time refused to interfere.

Probable Murder and Suicide.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 1.—Four shots fired in rapid succession started 4,000 spectators of a fire on Smithfield street yesterday evening. Police entered the Hotel Eiffel, whence the sounds came, and found Louise Kellogg, an actress, writhing upon the floor, with two wounds in the head and neck. E. J. McNabb of Baltimore lay beside her.

CAUSES MANY FIRES.

Insurance Men Discuss Electricity as a Promoter of Conflagrations.

The Western Union of Fire Insurance Underwriters met again this morning at the parlors of the Southern Hotel. Yesterday was consumed largely with preliminary work in connection with the committee report on the three very important committee reports are under consideration; those on taxation and legislation, on electricity as a cause of fire, and on incendiary insurance.

It is expected that they will continue the entire day, of three sessions, if not a portion of tomorrow. The subject of electricity as a cause of fire is the most important, as it is the only one in all probability, to that of the Federal Government, extending from mountain to mountain and as far south as the southern line of Tennessee. Its members hail from almost every important city from Boston to San Francisco, and from Denver to Atlanta. The union will be in session until Saturday.

The present meeting is the most important for many years. The widespread losses incurred in every State by almost every company for an unbroken series of years has already driven some companies out of active business and caused others an anxious chase after favorable territory and good risks.

This points to radical defects in the insurance system somewhere. Rates have been raised in some cases, but that has a tendency to react upon the companies by diminishing business. The attempt in Tennessee to force people to carry fire insurance, by levying a fine in proportion to the percentage of risk carried by the insurance company, met with determined resistance from the General Assembly of that State.

It is widely recognized that electricity causes by far too many fires. The age of electricity is at hand, but insurance men believe that the precautionary measures adopted have not kept pace with the progress of invention and the spread of the deadly wires. This subject will be very fully treated by the Electrical Committee of the Western Union. It is believed to be a vital issue.

Means must be found to render electrical risks less dangerous or disaster seems unavoidable.

The year 1892 furnished, as was to be expected, an account of the prevailing depression, an unusual number of fires believed to be of incendiary origin. Panic times invariably depreciate the value of property. This subject, incendiary and its possible prevention or detection and punishment, will be second in importance only to electricity.

Taxation and legislation have long been stock sources of complaint of insurance men. These three reports and the consideration of remedial measures will be the most important work of the union. There will be besides legislation on administrative subjects, rules governing agencies, etc. The union has for many years been a most important factor in the insurance world. It is believed that the union effectively prevents such practices on the part of the companies that compose it. The union is attempting to make its membership so valuable that a first-class company can not afford to stay out.

Brewery Wrecked.

TIFFIN, O., March 1.—At 8:12 o'clock this morning an explosion entirely wrecked Hubbs' brewery. The shock was felt for miles. Natural gas escaped from a high pressure main into the beer cellars, and when the night watchman, Anthony Meyer, entered with a lighted torch, the explosion occurred. The brewery was raised to the ground.

The Wagner residence near by was badly damaged and the occupants thrown from their beds. Heavy plate glass windows were splintered by the blast.

Though nothing remained but the foundations of the brewery, Meyer crawled from under the debris, unhurt, except a cut on the head and slight burns on his face. The loss is between $4,000 and $5,000.

WM. H. CLOPTON, NEW UNITED STATES DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

William H. Clifton, the recently appointed United States District Attorney, was born Aug. 24, 1847, in Madison Co., Ill. When the civil war broke out he was a cadet at the La Grange Military Academy of North Alabama. After the battle of Manassas the older cadets entered the Confederate Army and the academy became a student at the University of the South, at Greensboro, Ala., and remained there until June, 1863, when he joined the Confederate forces and served until the close of the war. He was paroled at Gainesville, Ala., with Gen. Abe Buford's brigade, May 10, 1865, and went to the University of Virginia in October of the same year. He graduated from the law department of this institution in June, 1869, and came to St. Louis the following October. He was admitted to the bar upon his arrival in this city and he taught school in St. Louis county from Jan. 9, to June, 1869. Mr. Clifton has taken an active part in politics since 1872. He was a member of the Democratic State Central Committee for two terms and was Treasurer of the committee during the Hancock and English campaign, displaying much activity in raising funds.

The most notable litigation in which he had taken part was the defense of actions in ejectment involving a large property in North St. Louis. The defense was that a deed purporting to have been made in 1821 was a forgery. After a tedious contest the forgery was proven and a very valuable property saved to the owners. The base ball park on Grand avenue had been taken from its real owner by the use of the forged deed, but after the forgery had been established Mr. Clifton brought suit for Mr. Linn and recovered his property. For this Mr. Clifton received a fee of $10,000.

SIX RESIDENCES BURNED.

Disastrous Fire in the Suburbs at an Early Hour This Morning.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning several residences on Bertha avenue, just outside the city limits, in St. Louis County, were destroyed by fire, causing almost a complete loss to the owners and occupants, aggregating $15,000.

The fire was discovered about 4:30 o'clock in the one-story frame dwelling at 6143 Bertha avenue, owned by Charles Clark, a builder, and occupied by Albert C. Gillespie, a negro. An alarm was sounded from box 1312, on Maple and De Rodman avenues, but owing to the distance from the nearest engine house, the flames had gained considerable headway before any water could be thrown on the burning structures.

The residence was damaged to the extent of $1,200, and the furniture was scorched to the amount of $300. Neither house nor contents were insured.

The fire spread to the frame structures at 6141 and 6145 Bertha avenue, also owned by Charles Clark. These were damaged about $1,300 worth. The house 6141 was unoccupied, but the furniture of 6145, occupied by J. L. Foreman, colored, was damaged to the extent of $800. No insurance.

The residence owned and occupied by Fred W. Beale at 6147 Bertha avenue and contents were damaged to the amount of $1,000, and are uninsured.

A two-story structure adjacent to Morrissey's house, owned by W. W. Alter of Kirkwood, Mo., and occupied by George W. Kinscher and John Kubland, was also badly burned, the damage amounting to $1,200.

The origin of the fire is unknown, and the insurance does not begin to cover the loss.

A Horse Burned.

This morning about 2 o'clock a fire was discovered in the frame stable in the rear of 1827 North Seventeenth street, owned and occupied by Tobias Burke, a coal merchant, who lives at 1300 Benton street. Before the fire department could do any effective work, the highly combustible material in the stable was nearly all destroyed. A horse valued at $200 was badly burned that it had to be shot and the stable was damaged to the extent of $100.

Ex-Constable Murdered.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 1.—Sheriff Grantham to-day received a dispatch from Ash Grove saying that Geo. Vannett had killed Ex-Constable W. M. Caulfield and skipped. About six months ago Caulfield was constable of Boone township and there was bad feeling between him and Vannett. One day Vannett became angry with Caulfield and the constable attempted to arrest him. Vannett resisted and Caulfield shot him, inflicting a dangerous wound. He is now under indictment for felonious assault. The feud has been growing in bitterness until culminated by the murder above referred to.

COAL MINES CLOSED.

A General Shut-Down in Ohio—Both Sides Stubborn.

CINCINNATI, March 1.—The last day of March is signalized in the Ohio coal mining district by a general closing of mines. In Jackson County 4,000 miners are shut out, and in other localities a similar condition exists. There have been efforts on the part of operators for some time to reduce wages, and there have been conferences and hitches for a long time between operators and miners.

On Friday of last week a joint conference of operators and miners was held at Wellston, in Jackson County. The operators had previously given notice that rates would be reduced in the Jackson-Wellston district to correspond with the rates set Feb. 15 in the Hocking Valley district, which was 60 cents a ton, a reduction of 20 cents.

At the conference the operators wanted the reduction to take effect immediately. The miners wanted it postponed until March 1, when the operators said they would recommend an acceptance of the reduction. Upon this there was a split, and upon that the mines were ordered closed.

At the Hocking Valley mines are out already upon refusal to accept this reduced basis, the operators feel that there is a combination among the miners to force all Ohio operators to correspond with them.

Matrimony Booming.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 1.—The order of the City Employment Committee, restricting work in the parks at $1 per day to married men has caused a boom in the matrimonial business. Trouble is expected about the matter.

Andrew Carnegie's offer, accepted yesterday, as $130,770.75 was raised by the committee, the total amount expended will reach $20,000.

A COW THIEF'S CONVERSION.—The revival at the People's Central Church, on Eleventh and Locust streets, are being actively conducted, since Dr. Hammett, pastor, and Dr. J. M. Spencer and Dr. K. P. Morris in an audience of 500, held a service for the revival of the lost soul, but now an active participant in the affairs of the church. Dr. Spencer says he confessed to him after one of the revivals, and then, thinking the confession sufficient penance, he went and surrendered himself to the police and said he had stolen a cow from Mr. Savage, on Calhoun place. When Mr. Savage heard of the circumstances surrounding this man's arrest he refused to prosecute him.

COLORADO SECESSIONISTS.

Text of a Petition Widely Circulated by Malcontents.

GEOGRAPHY, Colo., March 1.—Here is the secession petition circulated by Mayor Parker and signed by many citizens, though looked on with great disfavor by others:

"The undersigned, citizens of Georgetown, Colo., recognize the truth of the great doctrine enunciated in the Declaration of Independence that when any government becomes destructive to the ends for which it was established it is then the right and the duty of the people to throw it off and to establish new guards for their future security. We declare that the government of the United States in the establishment of an infamous banking system that eats out the substance of the people, increases all forms of indebtedness, centralizes wealth, and has resulted in the building up of a plutocracy that aspires to govern the nation; that in the domination of silver and the destruction of the paramount industry of many of the States, perpetrating the people and reducing them to the condition of wage slaves, thereby destroying the equality of civil right; that in refusing to regard the petitions of the people, or to afford relief other than issuing additional bonds, which further increased the power of the capitalists to wring the hard earnings from the hands of the poor, evinces a determination to reduce the people to a condition of absolute servitude, and believing that submission to such a government is not the duty of patriots or of those who love independence, and for the sake of peace, we respectfully request the Federal Government to permit us to peacefully withdraw from the union of the States, and to strengthen our hands, we respectfully ask the Government of Mexico to favorably consider the proposition we shall hereafter make to enter into an alliance with that republic.

AN INTRIGUE EXPOSED.

An Attempt by French Politicians to Utilize Princess Marie D'Orleans.

PARIS, March 1.—The Figaro has made public an intrigue relating to the Franco-Russian alliance that will stimulate the Carnot Ministry to a searching investigation. The prominent personages dealt with are the Count of Russia, Princess Marie D'Orleans, wife of Prince Waldemar of Denmark; Count de Beauchamp, a captain in the French army and military attaché at Copenhagen; Gen. Bortin, secretary-general, and others of President Carnot's household.

The origin of the sensation was an alleged attempt to obtain through Princess D'Orleans, a sister-in-law of the Czar, his real intentions toward the French in forming the recent alliance. Capt. Beauchamp is said to have approached the Princess and told her that certain information was badly wanted by the French Government, or rather President Carnot, and the favorite of the Czar was asked to obtain answers to the questions: "What does Russia expect of France in return for the real friendship she is maintaining toward her?" and "Do you think the Czar considers himself pledged toward France, so far as the defensive is concerned?"

TO DISPENSE WITH RED TAPE.

Movement to Simplify the Administration of the Larger Post-Offices.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1.—The post-office appropriation bill was reported to the House yesterday. It is marked by certain new features which have been introduced for the purpose of enabling the Postmaster-General to simplify the administration of the big offices of the country. Prominent among these reforms is one secured by the united efforts of Postmaster Dayton of New York and the postmasters of Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and other large cities, and in which Congressman Dunphy of New York has actively co-operated. It is the form of an amendment to the bill, and provides as follows: "For necessary miscellaneous and incidental items directly connected with first and second-class post-offices, including furniture, $140,000; provided that the Postmaster-General, in his discretion, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, may authorize any of the postmasters of said offices to expend the fund he may allow them for such purposes without the written consent of the Postmaster-General."

It was the desire of Postmaster Dayton and of Mr. Dunphy that the entire amount to be expended for supplies should be divided up among the several offices and disbursed in the discretion of the postmasters, but Postmaster-General Hiss objected to this arrangement on the ground that the purchases of the department could be made more cheaply if contracted for in bulk. It was decided, however, that the contingent expenses of the offices should be met by a fund set apart for use by each postmaster in his own discretion. This is provided for in the amendment above quoted. The effect of this change in the law will be to enable the Postmaster Dayton and his colleagues in the service to keep their offices in repair, purchase all necessary furniture and meet the incidental requirements of the service promptly without the delay which is now usually encountered in securing the consent of the Postmaster-General to all outlays, no matter how small.

NO LEGAL LIFE.

The Claim of the Single Taxers as to the Subway Company.

A special committee of the St. Louis Single Tax League, which has been investigating the subway question, reports as follows, beginning with the history of the National Subway Co. of Missouri:

Feb. 13, 1899, an ordinance numbered 14,708, and entitled "An ordinance to provide for the laying of electric wires under ground" was duly approved. This ordinance was not accepted by the grantee by any person or persons known to have any relation (contractual or otherwise) with said grantee. Indeed, as a matter of fact, the grantee named in said ordinance, "the National Subway Co. of Missouri," had not at that time, nor has it had at any time since, any legal existence; nor is any person named or known, as having any business connection with it.
